A NEW EDITION OF STRABO

Preliminary announcement is made of an elaborate annotated edition of Strabo's Geography by an editorial staff of American scholars. The plan contemplates an introduction on the life, travels, and sources of Strabo, a translation of the Geography, and extended notes, much after the manner of Frazer's Pausanias. It is hoped that such an edition will prove acceptable to scholars in various fields, since no satisfactory edition of Strabo exists, and he is our most important authority for the geography and topography of much of the ancient world. The work of the edition will be carried forward as rapidly as is consistent with thoroughness.

The plan of the edition is due to Dr. Charles H. Weller, Dr. David M. Robinson, and Dr. Albert T. Olmstead. Dr. Weller is general editor, Dr. Robinson will make the translation. The various portions of the work are assigned to specialists who have given evidence by their publications and studies of their peculiar fitness for the work in their several fields. The editorial staff so far as arranged is as follows: for Spain, Professor Paul Baur, Ph.D., of Yale University; for Egypt, Professor James H. Breasted, Ph.D., of the University of Chicago; for France, Professor Walter Dennison, Ph.D., of the University of Michigan; for Thessaly, Professor Roland G. Kent, Ph.D., of the University of Pennsylvania; for Assyria, Armenia, and Syria, Dr. A. T. Olmstead, of the University of Missouri; for western Asia Minor, Professor David M. Robinson, Ph.D., of Johns Hopkins University; for Scythia, Professor Nathaniel Schmidt, M.A., of Cornell University; for India and Persia, Professor Herbert C. Tolman, Ph.D., D.D., of Vanderbilt University; for Greece, Professor Charles H. Weller, Ph.D., of the University of Iowa; for Italy and Sicily, Professor Harry L. Wilson, Ph.D., LL.D., of Johns Hopkins University; for the introductory books, Mr. Jesse E. Wrench, M.A., of Syracuse University. Nearly all of the editors have been intimately connected as professors, fellows, and members with the American schools at Athens, Rome, and Jerusalem.

A CORRECTION

Professor Postgate wishes attention called to the fact that the discussion on pp. 24-26 of his Flaws in Classical Research, reviewed in our last number, does not refer to Professor Abbott's theory of the Latin accent, as was assumed by the reviewer on p. 227.
